Debbie and Jeff, I was pleased to receive both of your return email in response to my posting on the Pillers Message Board. After seeing leaving a message on GenForum, I emailed Debbie and received a wonderful note from her telling me about the FTM site with the Pillers database and a contact for the Harmon line also. Since I now have several contact names from you, I am sending this to all of you. WHAT A WONDERFUL JOB YOU HAVE DONE IN PUTTING THIS INFORMATION TOGETHER! I want you to know that we truly know the time and effort it takes to do this research. Jeff says Carolyn you are the main researcher, so APPLAUSE, APPALUSE!

First, may I say that it is my husband Jack Kenney Fulton who is in this direct line, we both do genealogy; however, he says I am the correspondent and typist! We have been doing genealogy since the early 60's when his grandparents were alive. I was blessed to have a Mormon friend who got us started before there wasn't anyone to ask. We both teach genealogy at our local votech, I teach a basic class and Family Tree Maker Software and Jack teaches Genealogy on the Internet. So you can see we are both involved. At this time I do not know whether we will attend the reunion, as have two reunions going on in my family in May and June, but if appears that there is a chance, I will email you later. You have a great agenda planned!

We have not done as much as you have but have two clippings concerning Harmon family reunions which have Pillers information. I am sorry to say there were no dates on them; however, one does give the Chester Tribune byline. So perhaps the information that may be of interest to you. Since I have typed it into my database, I will paste it at the bottom of this note. Again, thank each of you for corresponding and I know the June reunion will be a terrific one.
Sincerely, Barbara and Jack Fulton

This newspaper clippings was in the personal effects of Maggie Josephine Kenney Fulton, grandmother of Jack Kenney Fulton.

REUNION:
The Harmon Reunion: (Communicated.)
One of the most pleasant social affairs it has been our good fortune to attend, was the Harmon family reunion held at the residence of George Harmon, on Saturday, September 25, 1897.

Rev. N.E. Harmon, of Wichita, Kan., being on a visit to the old home, and brothers and sisters, they took advantage of his being here to have a family reunion. It was first decided to have the gathering at the old homestead, the present home of Noah Harmon, but on account of the sad intelligence of the death of Dr. D.R. Taggart, of Bakersfield, Cal. brother of Mrs. Noah Harmon, the meeting was held at the residence of George Harmon, the oldest member of the family living.

MR. ABRAHAM HARMON was born in Tennessee in June, 1804, son of Michael Harmon and Catherine Harmon, nee Seigel, came to Illinois with his parents in 1811, lived near Ellis Grove during his boyhood. When he arrived at manhood he was married to Ann, the eldest daughter of Maj. John Pillars, who was one of the early settlers of the county.

Uncle Abe and Aunt Ann, as they were familiarly called, were the parents of sixteen children, three of whom died in infancy. John, Michael, and Philip lived to middle age, and were three of the substantial men of the community.

The other 10 children were all present at the family reunion, as follows: Rev. N.E. Harmon, Wichita, Kans; Mrs. McKee, St. Louis; Mrs. Judge John Harris, of Percy; A.L. Harmon and Mrs. Judge Robert Harmon, Mrs. Sarah Brown, Mrs. J.J. Bean, and Mrs. Thomas Gant; all of New Palestine.

Uncle Abe died in Sep. '69. He was a republican in politics, and for the last 30 years of his life was a faithful worker in the M.E. Church at New Palestine, in fact he was one of the founders of that church. Aunt Ann died March 1888. Perhaps no woman in the country was better known that Aunt Ann. As she has been called upon to administer to the wants of the sick in almost every family in and about New Palestine. The children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren now number about 225 living with perhaps about 25 dead. All the protestant churches are now represented by this family, as well as all the political parties. The reunion was attended by about 150 persons, a large majority of whom were the descendants of the Harmon family.

FAMILY REUNION.
One of the best and happy gatherings which has ever taken place in this county was that of the Harmon family reunion which took place at the home of George Harmon near New Palestine last Saturday. It was the first reunion held in five years.
The members of the family to the number of one hundred and sixty, together with a number of specially invited guests gathered at the Harmon home.

The beginning of the history of the Harmon family in this county goes back to 1810 when Mrs. Caroline Harmon with a number of sons and daughters emigrated from Tennessee to the vicinity of New Palestine. Mrs. Harmon has lost her husband before moving to this county, and she died in about 1843. Of her children, Abraham, George and James remained in this county, and are the parents of the older living members of the Harmon family. They have all since died.

Abraham Harmon was married to Miss Ann Pillars, and their children in attendance at the reunion were: George, Abe, Nathan, and Noah Harmon, Mrs. Sarah Brown, Mrs. J.J. Bean, Mrs. Robert Gant, Mrs. Thomas Gant, Mrs. Ann McKee, of St. James, Minn., and Mrs. John Harris.

James and Lacy Harmon are the sons of George Harmon and Joseph P. Harmon is the son of James Harmon. With the exception of Mrs. McKee and Rev. Nathan Harmon, all are residents of this county, the daughters having prosperously married, and the sons being well-to-do and highly respected farmers of the county. ---- Chester Tribune.

Barbara,
I found your message posted on February 27th for the Pillers Reunion. The main person, who is the cousin of my father, for Pillers family research is:

Carolyn Dobler dobler@mnic.net

For the reunion that is taking place June 23-25, 2000 the commitee members are:

Susan Reed Burneson (nimbus@io.com)
Carolyn Forster (jcforster@juno.com)
Carolyn Pillers Dobler (dobler@mnic.net)

I also have information but Carolyn is definitely the main researcher for our family. If you have any Pillers information, which it appears you do (Anne Pillers) I would be extremely grateful if you could pass it on to me. I have two email accounts:

Barbara,

Hi. Thanks for writing. We are always happy to hear from Pillers cousins no matter which line they descend from. I am also from the James Francis line. In addition to Pillers we have also had some contact with the Harmon decendants. I am giving you an internet link below in the hopes that you will find something that you are looking for. Carolyn Pillers Dobler is the webmaster of the Pillers/Pillars web page. That page has links to the Pillers Genforum as well as names of researchers, census, military, birth, marriages, deaths, cemeteries, etc. It also includes a link to the family tree Decendants of James Francis Pillers and Martha Hughes which you should take a look at, and other Pillers/Pillars trees. As you can see from the web page, we don't publish information on the living with the exception of e-mail addresses of those who wish to be added to the researchers page. Most of us do also have our personal files full of information that is not posted so if you have any questions, please ask. Someone may have what you are looking for in their personal file. Of course, if you have anything you'd like to have published on the page please let us know as we are always looking for new material. Even the smallest tidbits of information could help someone make a connection.

Here is an e-mail address for Rex Harmon who also comes from Ann & Abraham. He is very knowledgeable on the Harmon line and even sent us a photo of them. I think Carolyn has addresses for other Harmon researchers and someone has written a book on the Harmons.
Rex Harmon - IndexRex@aol.com

Hope you enjoy some of what we have and please continue to write and let us know how your research is going and what you think of the web page. Another cousin is working on a web page specifically for the reunion and hopes to have it posted soon. Hope to meet you at the reunion.

his parents. His father, John Mann, was born February 1, 1796, in South Carolina, and removed when quite young to Kentucky, where he grew to manhood. On the outbreak of the War of 1812 he enlisted his services, and fought at New Orleans under Gen. Jackson. His father, the grandfather of our subject, bore the name of Robert Mann. He was a native of South Carolina, and of Scotch-Irish extraction. He married Miss Mary Huston, a relative of Governor Huston, of Texas.

The father of our subject was united in marriage on the 4th of July, 1815, to Albina B. Balch, the daughter of the Rev. James Balch, the first Presbyterian minister to ever preach a sermon in Indiana. The parents were married while residing in Kentucky, whence he moved to Indiana, and in 1827 came to Illinois, locating in the town of Preston, four miles east of Kaskaskia. There he made his home until his decease, March 7, 1881. His wife, the mother of our subject, was born in East Tennessee November 25, 1797, and was married to John Mann July 4, 1815. She is also deceased, her death having occurred November 17, 1882. They reared a family of nine children, and two died in infancy. Those living bear the respective names of William H., John P., Robert C., Capt. James F., Albina, Jonathan B., Rev. Alfred M., Calvin A. (our subject) and Mary J. Alfred M. is pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Osawatomie, Miami County, Kan. At the breaking out of the late war, the Mann family was loyal to the Union cause, and Dr. Mann and four of his brothers enlisted in the army and served their country faithfully until the close of the Rebellion.

Our subject entered the common schools, and further advanced his knowledge by attendance at the Chester schools. Having decided to follow the medical profession, he began reading under the tutelage of Dr. Roe. Later entering the St. Louis Medical College, he carried on his studies until he was graduated in 1858. Dr. Mann then engaged in the active practice of his profession, being thus employed until 1876, when he took a course of study at the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia.

Dr. Mann and Miss Emily C. Young were united in marriage March 10, 1859. The lady was the daughter of John Young, and was born in Chester. They have been blessed with a family of four children, namely: Walter H., Emily A., Cornelius A. and Mary A. Cornelius has followed in the footsteps of his father, and is a practicing physician, being a graduate of the St. Louis Medical College. Politically, our subject is, and always has been, an earnest and stanch Republican, having cast his first vote for John C. Fremont in 1856. Socially, he is an honorary member and ex-President of the Southeastern Missouri Medical Association, and also holds membership with and has occupied the same office in the Southern Illinois Medical Association. He is an ambitious and wide-awake man and has contributed several articles of value to the profession, which have been published in the leading medical journals. The Doctor and his wife are devoted members of the First Presbyterian Church of Chester, in which they have been zealous and active workers, and in which Dr. Mann is an Elder.

ROBERT GANT, a respected and prosperous farmer of township 7, range 6, Randolph County, was born November 1, 1832, in this county, and has here made his home all his life. His father, Thomas Gant, was a native of Nelson County, Ky., and lived in the Blue Grass State until 1831, when he came to this county and engaged in farming, which vocation he followed until his death, which occurred in April, 1875. The grandfather of our subject bore the name of William Gant. He was of English birth, but came to the United States and located in Kentucky about the year 1795. He was married in his native country to Miss Jane Holt.

The mother of our subject bore the name of Eliza Hathaway. Her parents came from Wales and settled in Kentucky, where she was born and reared. She was called from this life in April, 1834, when Robert was but a year and a-half old. His father was again married, taking Mrs. Parthena (Williamson) Uhls as his wife. The lady was born in North Carolina, but was residing in Randolph parents. His father, John Mann, was born February 1, 1796, in South Carolina, and removed when quite young to Kentucky, where he grew to manhood. In the outbreak of the War of 1812 he enlisted his services, and fought at New Orleans under Gen. Jackson. His father, the grandfather of our subject, bore the name of Robert Mann. He was a native of South Carolina, and of Scotch-Irish extraction. He married Miss Mary Barnes, a relative of Governor Hyrne, of Texas.

The father of our subject was united in marriage on the 4th of July, 1818, to Almira B. Reid, the daughter of the Rev. Jesse Reid, the first Presbyterian minister to ever preach a sermon in Indiana. The parents were married while residing in Kentucky, whence he moved to Indiana, and in 1837 came to Illinois, locating in the town of Preston, four miles east of Kankakee. There he made his home until his decease, March 7, 1881. His wife, the mother of our subject, was born in East Tennessee November 23, 1797, and was married to John Mann July 4, 1818. At the breaking out of the late war, the Mann family was loyal to the Union cause, and Dr. Mann and four of his brothers enlisted in the army and served their country faithfully until the close of the Rebellion.

Our subject entered the common schools, and further advanced his knowledge by attendance at the Chester schools. Having decided to follow the medical profession, he began reading under the tutelage of Dr. Rice. Later entering the St. Louis Medical College, he carried on his studies until he was graduated in 1858. Dr. Mann then engaged in the active practice of his profession, being thus employed until 1874, when he took a course of study at the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia.

Dr. Mann and Miss Emily C. Young were united in marriage March 10, 1859. The lady was the daughter of John Young, and was born in Chester. They have been blessed with a family of four children, namely: Walter H., Emily A., Columbus A. and Mary A. Cornelius has followed in the footsteps of his father, and is a practicing physician, being a graduate of the St. Louis Medical College. Politically, our subject is, and always has been, an earnest and stanch Republican, having cast his first vote for John C. Fremont in 1856. Socially, he is an honorary member and co-founder of the Southeastern Illinois Medical Association, and also holds membership with and has occupied the same office in the Southern Illinois Medical Association. ROBERT HASTY, a respected and prosperous farmer of township 7, range 6, Randolph County, was born November 1, 1822, in this county, and has here made his home all his life. His father, Thomas Cass, was a native of Nelson County, Ky., and lived in the Blue Grass State until 1820, when he came to this county and engaged in farming, which vocation he followed until his death, which occurred in April, 1872. The grandfather of our subject bore the name of William Cass. He was of Englishe birth, but came to the United States and located in Kentucky about the year 1780. He was married in his native country to Miss Jane Holt.

The mother of our subject bore the name of Eliza Hathaway. Her parents came from Wales and settled in Kentucky, where she was born and reared. She was called from this life in April, 1854, when Robert was but a year and a-half old. His father was again married, taking Mrs. Barbara (Williamson) Cobb as his wife. The lady was born in South Carolina, but was residing in Randolph County at the time of her marriage, and by her union with the father of our subject became the mother of two children, only one of whom is living. He bears the name of Thomas, and is now United States Gauger, with headquarters at Belleville.

Our subject is one in a family of five children born to his mother, only two of whom are yet living, Robert and Spicy. The latter married William Gant and makes her home in this county. Robert had the advantages of a three months' subscription school for a few years when he was quite young, but, being of a studious turn of mind, he improved his spare moments and has become one of the well posted men of his section. He aided his father on the home farm until reaching his majority, when for the next four years he received a small compensation for his labors. He then began on his own account, and has added to his first small purchase until he is now the happy possessor of eight hundred broad and fertile acres. As a farmer, he displays excellent judgment in the rotation of crops, fertilization of the soil and cultivation of the land, and, as a result of his efforts, he has gained prosperity. In addition to raising the cereals, Mr. Gant keeps a fine grade of stock on his place, which is now one of the most attractive in the township.

The marriage of Robert Gant and Miss Catherine Harmon was solemnized June 10, 1858. Mrs. Gant is a daughter of Abraham and Ann (Pillars) Harmon, residents of Randolph County. The following children have been born of this union: S. E. Gant, a practicing physician in California; Florence, the wife of G. B. Allison, Postmaster of Chester; Emily, who married George Pinkerton, and is now making her home in Chicago; and Ellen, Thomas A., Anna E., Robert L., Laura, May and Katie Alice, all of whom are at home with their parents. Roy Holt, the youngest child, died when but three years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Gant are consistent members of the Methodist Church, in which the former is Trustee. Socially, he is connected with Lodge No. 72, A. F. & A. M., of Chester. In his political affiliations Mr. Gant is a stalwart Republican, but has never been desirous of office, although in 1887 he was elected County Commissioner, and has filled the position with satisfaction to his constituents as well as with credit to himself. His term of office was three years, and during one year of that time he was Chairman of that body. William Harmon, a nephew of Mrs. Gant, whose parents died when he was but three months old, is now included in the family circle of our subject.

DANIEL DAWSON, a prominent and highly respected citizen of Percy, who for several years has been prominent in business circles in this place, where he is engaged in general merchandising, was born in New Castle-upon-Tyne, England, on the 21st of May, 1824, and is the third child of Edward and Ann (Rodam) Dawson, who were also natives of England, and there spent their entire lives.

The subject of this sketch attended the public schools of his native land until fourteen years of age, when he entered the mines, where he was employed until twenty years of age. During that time he regularly attended night school, for he wished to acquire a good education and make himself a well informed man. He lived in England when there was nothing but wooden railroads in that country, and he saw what was called the "Puffing Billy," the first engine that drew a car-load of coal in Great Britain. He also heard the funeral sermon of George IV., and saw Lady Byron's maid who caused the separation of Lord and Lady Byron.

In 1852 Mr. Dawson bade adieu to his old home and friends and sailed for America, landing in New York on the 22d of September. He first located in Cannelton, Ind., where he remained for a few months, and then removed to Hawesville, Ky., where he worked for a year and a-half. His next place of residence was in Maryland, where he was employed for eight months, after which he went to Arkansas, spending two years in that state. Returning to the north, he located at Saline Mines, near Shawneetown, Ill., in 1856, and began work in the mines, where he continued his labors until 1872, when he went to Du Quoin, Perry center of that true hospitality that knows so well how to welcome and speed the parting guest.]

When first locating here, Mr. Wood owned eighty acres of land, but, being industrious and possessed of marked foresight and sound judgment, before long had accumulated two hundred and sixty acres, placing the entire amount under improvement. His farm was found to contain a fine coal vein, which he opened up and mined very successfully for about twenty years. He has, however, given up this line of work and devotes himself entirely to farming.

Our subject is a member of the United Presbyterian Church, and though called upon many times to accept office, has always refused to do so. He is a particularly healthy and robust man, and in the past forty years has never had occasion to seek the advice of a physician. He is a stanch Republican in politics. Mr. Wood has given his children a good education. His son is a graduate of Monmouth (Ill.) College, and he also took a course of study in the University of Michigan. In 1878 he went to Colorado, at the same time visiting California, Washington, Arizona and Canada. When a little over fourteen years of age the son entered the Union army, serving through the entire war, and was with General Sherman on his march to the sea.

JAMES M. PILLERS, one of the native sons of Randolph County, has since 1886 engaged in dealing in live stock in Steeleville, where he at present makes his home. He is a man of good business ability, energetic and enterprising, and his well directed efforts have won him a fair degree of success. The record of his life is as follows:

Mr. Pillers was born March 2, 1854, and is the eldest child of P. W. and Jane M. (Wilson) Pillers, both of whom were also natives of Randolph County, being representatives of pioneer families of this community. Both the Pillers and Wilson families originated in Ireland. The father of our subject was a prosperous farmer of Randolph County, and followed agricultural pursuits until his death, which occurred on the 7th of April, 1886. His widow still survives him, and is yet living on the old homestead. They were both worthy and highly respected citizens of this community, and bore a prominent part in the work of upbuilding and development.

The subject of this sketch attended the district schools of the neighborhood until twelve years of age, after which his mother taught him at home for a time. Later he spent the winter seasons in the school room until eighteen years of age, while through the summer months he aided in the labors of the farm. At that time he entered the Sparta High School, which he attended for eight and a-half months, when he was quarantined for forty days on account of small-pox near his home. He then returned to the farm, where he worked for some time, operating the old homestead in his own interest. He successfully carried on agricultural pursuits until 1878, in which year he removed to Blair, Ill., where he engaged in dealing in live stock for eight years, when, in 1886, he came to Steeleville, and has since engaged in the same line of business. In1893 he purchased a hotel here, and is now the genial and popular landlord of the Pillers House.

On the 14th of June, 1875, Mr. Pillers was united in marriage with Miss Emma M. Garven, a daughter of George and Eliza M. (Gordon) Garven. Her father's family was of Scotch lineage, and her mother's of Irish origin. Mrs. Pillers is a native of Randolph County, and is a member of the Presbyterian Church. By their union were born three children, George W., James M. and Rose Gertrude, and the family circle yet remains unbroken. The two sons are attending school.

Mr. Pillers is a member of Alma Lodge No. 497, A. F. & A. M., of Steeleville, and three months after his initiation into the same he was elected to office, and has since continued to serve in some official position. He has held every office except that of Master, which he resolutely refused to accept. In politics he is a stalwart Republican, has served as Village Trustee, and is now Police Magistrate and a member of the School Board. He is ever prompt and faithful in the discharge of his public duties, thus proving a capable officer. He lives a quiet unassuming life, but is admired and respected by all who know him for his many excellencies of character and his sterling worth. He is indeed a worthy representative of one of the honored pioneer families of his native county. The grandfather, John Pillers, served in the Black Hawk War as Major.

JOHN BOURCHIER carries on agricultural pursuits on section 34, Carbondale Township, Jackson County, where he has a good farm of two hundred and seventy-five acres of rich land. Of this, one hundred acres are under a high state of cultivation, and yield to him a golden tribute in return for the care and labor he bestows upon them. He also raises a good grade of stock. The neat and thrifty appearance of the place indicates the owner to be a practical and progressive farmer.

Mr. Bourchier was born in County Limerick, Ireland, July 27, 1846, and is a son of Thomas and Maria (Hines) Bourchier, both of whom were natives of the Emerald Isle, the former born in 1819, and the latter in 1820. The year 1849 witnessed their emigration to America. They landed at New Orleans and spent a year and a-half in that city, after which they came to Jackson County. In his native land Mr. Bourchier had engaged in the grocery and bakery business, and after coming to America was employed as a salesman in a dry-goods store for a time. He knew nothing about farming, but secured a tract of land on which was a log cabin. His nearest neighbor was four miles distant, and it was eleven miles to the nearest postoffice. Practical experience made him a good agriculturist, and in course of time he developed a fine farm, on which he made his home until his death. He served as School Director for the last twenty years of his life, and was a prominent citizen. He and his wife were members of the Catholic Church. His death occurred September 15, 1881, and she passed away on the 30th of November following.

Our subject was only three years old when brought by his parents to the New World. He was reared amid the wild scenes of frontier life, and aided in the arduous task of developing a new farm. He took charge of the old homestead on the death of his parents, and it has since been his property.

In 1872 Mr. Bourchier was united in marriage with Miss Mary, daughter of George and Amanda (McCullom) Simmons, both of whom were natives of Kentucky, the former born in 1823, and the latter in 1826. They were married in that state, and thence emigrated to Illinois. The father was a soldier in the Mexican War. Mrs. Bourchier was born in Randolph County, Ill., on the 2d of June, 1851, and acquired her education in the schools of Chester and the Southern Illinois State Normal University. She is a lady of culture and refinement, and presides with grace over her hospitable home. Unto our subject and his wife have been born six children: Thomas, Laura E., Anna M., George, Clarence R. and Nellie.

Mr. Bourchier takes quite an interest in political affairs, and by his ballot supports the men and measures of the Democracy. He has served as School Director, and the cause of education receives his hearty support. He and his wife are devout and consistent members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and also take an active interest in the work of the Sunday-school. The family is one of prominence in this community and well deserves representation in this volume.

JOSEPH WILLIS CALDWELL, who is successfully engaged in farming in township 5, range 6, Randolph County, has the honor of being a native of this state. He was born in Warren County in 1839. His grandparents, Joseph and Mary (Reed) Caldwell, were natives of Ireland and Scotland, respectively, and on emigrating to this country, located in Ohio, where they were married. The former was a son of Samuel Caldwell, who came to America in the "Mayflower." The family is noted for longevity.

The father of our subject, William Caldwell, was born in Coshocton County, Ohio, in 1807, and in 1818 went to Pittsburgh, and thence removed to Indiana, where for two years he engaged in teach-he now resides. He has since devoted his time and energies untiringly to agricultural pursuits, and as the result of his continued labors, his well directed efforts and good business ability, he has acquired a comfortable competence.

On the 1st of March, 1861, Mr. Singer was married to Miss Sophia Jany, a daughter of John and Anna Jany, who were both natives of Prussia, but in an early day located in Randolph County. The union of our subject and his wife has been blessed with a family of nine children, and with the exception of Andrew, who died at the age of two years, all are yet living and are still with their parents. They are, Julia, Mary, Anna, Frank, John, Joseph, Herman and Edward.

Mr. Singer and his family are all consistent and faithful members of the Roman Catholic Church. They are people of prominence in this community, widely and favorably known, and it is with pleasure that we present to our readers a record of their lives. In his political views, Mr. Singer has always been a supporter of the Democracy, but has never aspired to public office, preferring to devote his entire time and attention to his business interests, in which he has met with a signal and well merited success.

R. J. RUSHING is the Postmaster of Pinckneyville, and in the discharge of his public duties has won high commendation, for he is ever true to the trust reposed in him, whether it be public or private. This is his native city, his birth having here occurred October 18, 1863. His father, Evan B. Rushing, was born in Bedford County, Tenn., June 17, 1827, and came to Perry County with his father, Joel Rushing, in 1833. The latter was born in North Carolina, December 26, 1799, and was a prominent citizen and honored pioneer of this county. He served as County Commissioner, and under his direction the old part of the present court house was built. He was a leading member of the Baptist Church, did much to promote its interests, and led a most exemplary life. His death occurred in Pinckneyville, July 10, 1878. His father, whose name was Joseph Rushing, was also born in North Carolina, and died in Tennessee.

Evan B. Rushing acquired his education in the public schools of Perry County, and in his early life engaged in teaching school for a time. In 1856, he was elected to the office of Circuit Clerk of the county, and thus served for two terms, during which time he read law and became thoroughly acquainted with all the branches of the profession. In 1868, he passed an examination and was admitted to the Bar. The same year he was appointed Master in Chancery, and was several times re-appointed to that office, which he continued to fill until 1888, his term of service being ended by death. He was also President of the Town Board and Trustee of the village, and in whatever office he was called upon to fill he was always found prompt, faithful and true in the discharge of his public duties. He was one of the founders of the Perry County Agricultural Society, and was recognized as one of the leading citizens of this community. He was married March 20, 1849, to Letitia, daughter of Reuben and Elizabeth (James) Kelly. She was born in Perry County, February 6, 1833, and died September 28, 1864. In their family were three children, a son and two daughters. Susie is now the wife of T. S. Campbell, a druggist of Pinckneyville, and Mary A. is the wife of F. M. Roe, a merchant of Pinckneyville.

In the schools of his native town our subject was educated. He entered upon his business career when a small boy as clerk in a store, and at the age of nineteen was proprietor of a grocery store, which he successfully carried on for five years. He was then called to public office, and served for three years as Deputy County Clerk of Perry County, which position he at length resigned to accept the position of Postmaster in November, 1893. He was appointed without opposition, and is now faithfully discharging the duties of the office. In April, 1893, he was elected Alderman from the First Ward, and is now serving in that capacity.

Mrs. Rushing bore the maiden name of Maggie Strait, and is a daughter of J. D. Strait, who was a prominent pioneer of Perry County. One child graces the union of our subject and his wife, Evan, who was born in January, 1837. Mr. Rushing has always been a Democrat in politics, and takes an active interest in everything that tends to insure the success of his party. Socially, he is a Royal Arch Mason, and is regarded as one of the most popular young men of Pinckneyville, a fact which indicates a well spent life, as he has always lived in this place.

ROBERT P. THOMPSON was born in Randolph County, Ill., in 1838, and was a worthy representative of one of the honored pioneer families of this community, a family prominent in the history of the community, in its upbuilding, advancement and improvement. The farm upon which he located was settled by his father in 1818, the year in which the state was admitted to the Union. His parents were James and Mary Thompson, both of whom were natives of Randolph County, and here they spent their entire lives.

Our subject attended the district schools of the neighborhood, and there acquired a fair education. When he had mastered the common branches of learning he studied surveying under the direction of his father, and having thoroughly mastered the business, he was in 1859 elected County Surveyor of Randolph County, proving a capable and efficient officer. He afterward engaged in teaching school in different parts of the county, and in this undertaking was alike successful. In 1863, in connection with his brother J. D., he got up a map of Randolph County from the Government surveys. In 1866 and 1867 he served as Deputy Sheriff under Capt. John T. McBride.

On the 11th of March, 1873, Mr. Thompson was united in marriage with Miss Nancy Miller, of Lively Prairie. The lady is a daughter of John and Nancy (Boyd) Miller, both of whom were natives of South Carolina, but during childhood came with their respective parents to Randolph County, where they were reared and married. From that time until their deaths they continued residents of this county. Mrs. Thompson was their only child. Unto our subject and his wife were born three children, but two of the number died in infancy. One is still living, Miss Ada, who is attending the Chester schools. She and her mother made their home in Chester.

After his marriage, Mr. Thompson turned his attention to farming, which he carried on continuously until 1887, when he removed to Chester with his family. During his residence in that place he twice held the office of Deputy County Clerk, and was several times elected Chief Magistrate. In the various offices he filled he ever discharged his duties with a promptness and fidelity which won him high commendation and frequently won his re-election. He was always true to every trust, whether public or private, and had the high regard of all with whom business or social relations brought him in contact. His loss was mourned not only by his immediate family, but throughout the community as well, for he had many warm friends. He was a member of the Methodist Church, to which his wife also belonged. She was a most estimable lady, possessed of many excellencies of character, and like her husband is widely and favorably known in the community.

JOHN L. OZBURN, the efficient bookkeeper of the Jackson County Milling and Elevator Company, is also connected with other business interests of Murphysboro. He is a Director in the Bloomington Building and Loan Association, is President of the Board of Appraisers, and is a stockholder in the Southern Illinois Building and Loan and the Jackson County Homestead and Loan Associations. Business ability and an upright life have placed him in the foremost rank of the leading citizens of this community.

Born near Brownsville, Ill., February 20, 1852, our subject is a son of Col. Lindorf Ozburn, a native of North Carolina, who came to Jackson County in an early day. For a time he operated a horse-mill at Brownsville, and in 1854 came to Murphysboro, where he built the Lower Mill. In 1862 he aided in raising the Thirty-first Illifarm near Peoria, Illinois. She is an active member of the Baptist church. She received her education at Moores Hill College and at the Indiana State Normal. This union has been blessed with three children—Norma, Esther and Helen.

Israel and Jane (Ellis) Garrigues, parents of Mrs. Clarence B. Wilson, were natives of Indiana, and both died when she was very young, within a week of each other. They were the parents of five children, namely: Clara, Vina, Elizabeth, Jennie and Alice. The paternal grandparents of Mrs. Wilson are James and Elizabeth (Godden) Garrigues. The maternal grandparents were David and Mary (Barton) Ellis.

Mr. Wilson holds a high rank in the citizenship of his city, and through his official career has merited the esteem and confidence of all interested.

HON. NOAH SAMSON GIVAN.

The Givan family has been connected with the history and progress of Dearborn county for nearly one hundred years, Judge Noah Samson Givan's father, Joshua Givan, having come from Sussex county, Maryland, to Dearborn county in the spring of 1825. He was one of the successful, influential and wealthy farmers of his day and generation, who was able to give his children the best educational advantages which the times afforded. Judge Givan, who was graduated from Indiana State University more than a half century ago, has either been a practicing attorney, or a judge on the bench in Dearborn county practically all the time since his graduation. It is now fifty-seven years since he began the practice of law in Lawrenceburg, and with the exception of five years, during which time he practiced in Daviess county, Indiana, he has lived in Lawrenceburg. Few lawyers who belong to the generation represented by Judge Givan are better educated or better trained for the legal profession than he. No judge in this section of Indiana has had a more honorable career than Judge Givan, and few men are known so widely and honored with such sincere admiration.

Noah Samson Givan was born on September 30, 1833, in Manchester township, this county, the son of Joshua and Henrietta (Davis) Givan, both of whom were natives of Maryland. Joshua Givan was reared in Sussex county, Maryland, where he was a farmer. Coming to Indiana, in the spring of 1825, with his wife and several children, he purchased an improved farm, first in Manchester township, this county, and later took up three hundred and twenty acres of government land in the same township, adjoining his original purchase. He gave one hundred and sixty acres of land to his son, George, and sixty acres to his daughter, Nancy. About 1855 or 1856 he sold the remaining hundred acres to his son, William, but kept the original farm, and lived there until he was eighty years old, when he and his wife went to live with their son, George, where they spent the rest of their lives. Joshua Givan died at the age of eighty-five and his widow survived him but about three years, she dying at the age of eighty-two or three. They were prominent members of the Baptist church and reared a large family of children to honorable and useful lives. They were the parents of thirteen children, eight of whom lived to maturity, as follow: Nancy (deceased), was the wife of Joseph Parsons; George, now deceased; Martha, who married Reuben Hoppin (deceased), is now living at Belvidere, Illinois; William and Joshua, deceased; Noah Samson, the subject of this biographical sketch; Robert, deceased, and Mary, the widow of Thomas Sellers.

Judge Givan's paternal grandfather, the Rev. George Givan, was a Baptist minister, who was considered a powerful preacher in his day. He and his wife, who were both natives of Maryland, after rearing a large family of children died in their native state. The maternal grandparents of Judge Givan were also natives of Maryland, and among the early pioneers of Dearborn county, prominent residents of Manchester township. Among their children were Noah Davis, Samson, Brinkley and Henrietta Davis. After the death of Grandfather Davis his widow married again, her second husband having been a Revolutionary soldier.

Noah Samson Givan was reared on his father's farm in Manchester township, and attended the old-fashioned subscription schools, in the days when the teacher was accustomed to board around with the patrons. He later attended Franklin College for three years, and was graduated from Indiana State University at Bloomington, with the class of 1858. After his graduation he studied law for a short time in the office of Judge Buskirk, of Bloomington, and was graduated from the law department of Indiana State University in 1859. Judge Givan commenced practicing in Washington, Daviess county, Indiana, and was there for five years at the end of which time he returned to Dearborn county, opening an office at Lawrenceburg, and there he has since practised continuously, with the exception of the period covered by the two terms he spent on the bench.

In 1860 Judge Givan was elected prosecutor of the common pleas court of Daviess county, and in 1862 was elected state representative from Daviess county, and served one term in the Lower House of the Indiana Legislature. Ten years later Judge Givan was elected state representative from Dearborn county and in 1874 was elected a state senator from Dearborn and Franklin counties, serving until 1878. In 1876 he was elected presidential elector, and voted for Tilden and Hendricks. In 1878 he was elected judge of the Dearborn circuit court, and filled the office for six years. During the next twelve years he was engaged in the active practice of his profession and again, in 1896, was elected judge of the circuit court, and served another term of six years. During this period he also served three or four years as county school examiner and also as school trustee of the city schools for ten or twelve years.

On October 17, 1866, Judge Noah S. Givan was married to Mary Martin, who was born in Cincinnati on October 17, 1840, the daughter of Samuel and Amanda (Nesbit) Martin, the former of whom was born in Scotland. Samuel Martin, who was a cooper, located in Lawrenceburg about 1850, and there spent the rest of his life and he and his wife were the parents of two children, Mary and Margaret. The mother had been married formerly to a Mr. Wood and one son, William, had been born to that union.

To Judge and Mrs. Givan four children have been born, namely: Martin J., Henrietta, Frank M. and Margaret J. Martin J. Givan is a partner of his father in the practice of law at Lawrenceburg. He married Ann C. Odell and to this union nine children have been born, Margaret, Clinton H., George Noah Samson, Elizabeth, Ruth and Charles, who are living, and three children who died in early childhood. Henrietta Givan married John C. Scott, who is now deceased, and she is teaching music in Cuthbert Female College, at Cuthbert, Georgia. She has two children, Percival Givan Scott and Frank Noah Scott. Frank M. Givan is a traveling salesman and lives in Atlanta, Georgia. He married Darnettie Downey. Margaret J. Givan lives at home.

Judge Givan is a member of the Baptist church, though Mrs. Givan belongs to the Methodist church. Fraternally, he is a member of Lawrenceburg Lodge No. 4, Free and Accepted Masons, and of Lawrenceburg chapter, Royal Arch Masons. He is a Democrat and for years has been recognized as one of the strong factors in that party's organization in southern Indiana.

In the history of any section there is always some man who stands out as the first citizen of the community. It is not improbable that if the first citizen of Dearborn county were to be selected, Judge Givan would be named as that man. Aside from his long and honorable career on the bench, he has lived a worthy and useful life and has contributed much to the happiness and comfort of the people of Dearborn county. He has always believed in a wholesome community spirit and keenly loves the city which has been his home so long. Judge Givan is approachable, affable, charitable and broad-minded; a man who, to paraphrase the language of an early English poet, may be called a very perfect gentleman.

HON. ESTAL G. BIELBY.

The world is always ready to honor the young man who develops his available resources and makes the most of his opportunities. While it may not be absolutely true that everyone is the arbiter of his own fortunes, it nevertheless is relatively true. Mayor Estal G. Bielby, who after a lapse of a few years is serving his second term as mayor of the city of Lawrenceburg, is a self-made young man, whose merit the people of Dearborn county, and especially the city of Lawrenceburg, have not been slow to recognize and reward. Mayor Bielby is a well-known lawyer of this county, a man of exceptional executive ability in public affairs and popular, not only in Lawrenceburg, where he is serving the second term as mayor, but throughout all Dearborn county. Professionally, Mayor Bielby was well educated for the law, having received his legal training in one of the very best law schools of the country. Since locating in Lawrenceburg, years ago, he has built up a large and flourishing practice and enjoys an especially profitable clientage in this section of Indiana.

Estal G. Bielby was born in Manchester, Dearborn county, Indiana, on March 5, 1874, son of Huet G. and Jeanette (Hamlin) Bielby, and has lived in Dearborn county practically all his life. For several years he was one of the well-known school teachers of this county. His father, Huet G. Bielby, who was first married to Jeanette Hamlin, a native of Indiana, was brought up at Pierceville, Ripley county, Indiana, and after living there until eighteen years of age came to Dearborn county, and started a shoe shop in the village of Manchester, remaining in business there until 1883, when he went to Sunman, Indiana, and there opened a general store and operated a huckster wagon in connection with his store. Operating this business until 1908, he sold out and removed to Moores Hill, where he lived for a short time and spent the winter of 1908-09 at Forest City, Arkansas. On his return from the South,

EARLY SETTLERS of RANDOLPH COUNTY, IL-page-5

Most of my information is on the GANT and CRISLER line and this came from J.B. DODGE, aged historian of Fort Gage, who wrote a series of articles for the NEWS_PLAINDEALER: He wrote the following:
The GANT's of the New Palestine and Diamond Cross communities descended from William and Jane (HOLT) GANT. Natives of England, who emigrated to the United States soon after the Revolutionary War. Jane (HOLT)GANT was a daughter of Robert HOLT, a man of wealth and high standing. If tradition is correct he was not very well pleased about his daughters marriage. William GANT and his wife decided to emigrate to the United States. They settled in Boone County, Kentucky near the Ohio River about seven miles below Cincinnati. They remained there for several years. There was born to them: Robert, John, Thomas, Sarah and Mary Elizabeth GANT.

Robert GANT in young manhood married and settled near his father. After some years he and family came to Randolph County Illinois, and settled. A few years later William GANT started to migrate to Randolph County, Illinois. William GANT got drowned on the way. His wife and family came to Illinois and settled near her son, Robert. ~~Alter~~ After Williams" death she went back to England. The family states she was treated very coldly by her family and relatives. She returned to her home in Randolph County, Illinois and resolved never to return to her relatives in England again. She later married a Mr. RADLEY and they had a daughter, Mary RADLEY who married Joseph WILLIAM. The GANT's inherited habits of industry, enterprise, and economy. They were honest, honorable, and highly esteemed and became some of the leading farmers and citizens of the community and county.

Robert GANT, son of William and Jane (HOLT) GANT, born about 1800, died 9/12/1853, married Maria SHAVER 23 May 1819, Campbell County, Ky. Maria was the daughter of John SHAVER who emigrated to America before the Revolutionary War.(He settled in Boone County, Kentucky about 1795..) Maria died 8/22(1845. About 1824 Robert GANT and family floated down the Ohio River in a flat boat with their household goods to Shawneetown, IL. Robert GANT walked to the home of his brother-in-law,(100 miles) Rev. Silas CRISLER, at what is now New Palestine.

Robert obtained a team and wagon and returned to Shawneetown for his family and their goods. They returned to Rev. Silas CRISLER's and settled near him and resided there about three years, then moved to near Diamond Cross. He being industrious and economical, soon began to accumulate property and at the time of his death, he owned 1100 acres of land and other property and was one of the leading landowners of his community.

Robert GANT and Maria, is first wife, as stated by his son Alfred, had a family of 15 children with two by his second wife made a total of 17 in the Robert GANT family. Maria (SHAVER) GANT died in childbirth, 22 Aug 1845. She was 48 years old. A midwife was unsuccessful in delivering the baby. When things went badly Robert GANT rode on horse back to Chester, Illinois to bring the Doctor. When the Doctor arrived he remarked to Robert, "Well Robert you have waited to long this time." During Robert's absence in going to Chester, Illinois a distance of 10 miles for the Doctor, Maria realizing she was going to die called her children to her and told them she was going to die, and that when they grew up and married, never to have a midwife. She then made her last request. It was her wish to be buried under a large wild cherry tree near her home, so her little children could play over her grave. This wish was filled. This spot was later known as the GANT Family Cemetery. Robert GANT was later buried there also 15 Aug 1853. The graves were all moved to the New Palestine Cemetery about 1900. Wesley GANT, son of Robert and Maria GANT had the graves and gravestones moved. This was done when Elmer BEAN bought part of the farm."

I just opened the Harmon database on Ancestry...it is wonderful to find cousins this way. My line begins with my grandmother, Margaret Josephine Kenney daughter of John Lyle Kenney and Lucy Alice Harmon (dau of Philip and Elizabeth Ann Gant). I have addition information the Kenney line to add to your information, if you would like. Also have another generation back on the Harmon line. My grandmother grew up in the Swanwick area after marriage migrated to Nebraska and then to Oklahoma. I started asking her about the family back in the 60's, so have a bit more info than most might have...including newspaper clippings, pictures, etc., which I will be happy to share with you.

If you will send me your snail mail address, I will send you the additional information.
What are you working on now?

Look forward to corresponding with you.

Dear Susan,

I am so sorry that we were unable to attend the Pillers Reunion, know it must have been a wonderful weekend with lots of visiting, new faces and information exchanged.

Is it possible for me to have a copy of the maps and brochures that you had available for attendees? Later this fall we would like to make a trip to the area and know that information would be very helpful.

I am enclosing an envelope and $ for copies and postage. I very much look forward to receiving the information.

Hi List,

Found this article while searching the Deja.com archives. The examples used caught my eye and thought some of you might like to see it. It could explain why we see so many instances of Piller(s), Pillow(s), etc.

As a two-year-old I spent seven months in hospital and, to my mother's horror came home prattling about "windERs" and "pillERs" and such-like; she set about the correcting process with a will, and soon my vocabulary included, along with "windOW" and "pillOW". such words (among others) as "chambOW" :(for gozunda) and "sofO". In fact, by the time she'd finished, all words ending in the 'er' sound were changed (by me) to 'ow'.

In particular, "sofO" stayed in our family for as long as we had one - just one way in which language can change.

Subject: Pillers Page-new items

Hi all,

I've added a few new items to the web pages, including a "What's New" link on the home page. New items will appear in this list, by date, along with a link to the additions. New additions today are:
1860 Indiana Census abstracts
1860 Missouri Census abstracts
1880 Wisconsin Soundex abstracts
Steubenville (Ohio) Land Office 1800-1820

I have the option of making the list contents available to only those on the list. Please let me know if you think this is a good or bad idea.

Subject: Pillers list/page info

Hi all,

We hit 1000! There have now been 1000 hits on the Pillers/Pillars Family web page. Thanks to all of you for making use of the page and telling other cousins about it.

We now have 25 people on the discussion list. So far, the list has mostly been used to notify you about updates to the web page. We also hope that the list could also provide a means of making connections with related lines, but for this to work, everyone needs to participate.

To send a message to the entire list, simply send an email to "pillers@listbot.com" along with your message. This will automatically send it to all 25 people on the list. If you'd like to view past messages or unsubscribe, go to "www.listbot.com" and click on "list members". You'll then need to enter your email address and password.

At this point, I'd like to have a "roll call" of everyone on the list to help us all make those family connections we've been seeking. Please send a message to the list (pillers@listbot.com) with your Pillers/Pillars (or related name) connection. If you'd like, you can include information you're willing to share or request information that you're seeking. (For example, "I have the names and dates of so-and-so's children, but am seeking more info about his/her parents.")

Let's make some connections!

Subject: new items on web page

We've added a few new things to the web pages (finally). Our goal is to add something every week, although in reality it's been more like every month. Please consider submitting some of your own information to help the pages grow.

NEW ITEMS:
1900 Iowa Census Soundex for Pillers/Pillars/Piller/Pillar

1910 Census Soundex for Illinois, Missouri, Ohio for Pillers/Pillars (Piller/Pillar and other variations to come!)

1920 Census Soundex for Colorado, Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, Nebraska, Ohio

Marriage Index, alphabetical by first name, A-F

The 1910 Soundex didn't appear to be too well done. There seemed to be many typos, misspellings, and so on. I typed everything as it appeared on the Soundex.

Please let us know what types of things you'd like to see on the pages.

Subject: a few new things (finally!)

Here's a little something to relieve the winter doldrums. We've added a few things to the Pillers/Pillars Family Page!

The Census Index page now contains an index by FIRST NAME. Thanks to Debbie for getting this all together.

I have abstracted the 1880 and 1900 Soundexes for Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, and Ohio. I intend to do 1910 and 1920 for these states, also. Please let me know what other states you think I should include. I chose these 4 states because they seem to be where the Pillers/Pillars were concentrated at those times. I know I missed Michigan and Texas. Any others????

I only abstracted the Soundex code P462 (Pillers/Pillars). I intend to also do P460 (Piller/Pillar), and if the reel contains P420 (Pillows) or P400 (Pillow), I'll do those too.

Be aware that I abstracted exactly from the microfilm, so if names appear to be misspelled, ages off, and so on, remember that this is how they appeared on the Soundex card. Also, I know that some names are missing from Illinois in 1900--as I have the census pages for them, but they didn't appear in the Soundex. Further, in 1880, only households with children 10 or younger were included in the Soundex.

Also, the 1880 and 1900 aren't included in the index by first name.

Remember, if you want to send a message to the list, send to: pillers@listbot.com

Subject: Updates & Additions

Hello Everyone!

I hope everyone had a great holiday season! Now that the holidays are over and everyone is calming down, I wanted to let you know that we'll be trying to add to the records on the Pillers/Pillars web page this month. It sometimes takes us a while once you send things in but it will get done -- Provided the spouses and children cooperate.

We need input! Send me an e-mail if you would like to be on the researchers list. If you have any information you'd like to add to the records list please send it to me and let me know if you want your name added as the contributor of that information. You might also consider sending your source although it isn't necessary. We will use any bits of information you'd like to send such as birth, marriage, and death dates. You could send us your tree or we could link to your personal web page for your tree if you'd like. For those of you that have an internet web page or FTM Home Page you can add that url to your 'Researchers and Areas of Interest' posting.

There hasn't been much discussion on the mailing list. Please feel free to post Pillers/Pillars 'most wanteds', dead ends or just general questions to the mailing list. We have people all over the world signed up so surely someone could help answer your questions about a geographical area different from your own. We are trying to connect everyone that's interested. If we work together then maybe someday we'll find that elusive ancestor that ties us all together.

For those of you that are new to the list I'll introduce myself. My name is Debbie Talbot Johnson. I'm a Houston native that lives just north of Houston in The Woodlands, Texas. I live with my husband Skip, my twin teenage sons Lane and Chase, and our dog Hannah. My husband is in the oil business so we've also lived in Rangely, CO and Broken Arrow, OK. We just keep coming back here. I descend from James F. Pillers - John - Peter Wylie - Henry Clark - Prentiss (Pete) - Lois - then me. I am a first cousin of Janet Hatfield and a third cousin to Carolyn Pillers Dobler. Last March while poking around on the Randolph Co, IL web page I saw Carolyn's name and the surnames she was researching and the rest is now more -- family history. I consider myself a rookie genealogist because I've only been researching for about 18-20 months. Well, I didn't mean to ramble on.

So send us your input if you want it posted, get the mailing list buzzing and let's all go back to the library or courthouse now that all of this holiday stuff is done.....

Cheers,
Debbie

Subject: Pillers/Pillars list

Hi all,

Sorry I haven't been keeping up too much with the list--the holidays and work are keeping me busy.

There are some new additions to the web pages:
1. Some new researchers added to the researchers link. If you'd like your name added, send an email to me (dobler@gac.edu) or Debbie (crjdeb@concentric.net).
2. A new category--Obituaries. Here's your chance to submit some items! If you just type up the obits you have, and email them to me or Debbie, we'll see that they are added to the list. I plan on reformating these eventually (probably in January).
3. Descendants of William Pillars and Sarah Fleming, submitted by Elaine McLauchlan. Thanks Elaine! Elaine is hoping to make some contacts with this posting. Can anybody help Elaine find William's parents?

Here are some hints for using the list:
Send messages to pillers@listbot.com for the whole list to read.
Past messages are archived at www.listbot.com. Select "List Members" and enter your email name and your password (either you chose a password when you signed up or you were assigned one if I signed you up.) Click on "View List Archives" to see past messages.

After the holidays, I think that I'll have a list "roll call" for everyone to submit a brief message indicating their line of Pillers/Pillars/Pillows. This may help us all make some connections!

By the way, the counter wasn't working right for a while (my mistake) so we probably have more hits on the web page than the counter says.

Happy Holidays to everyone!

There's not much for a weekly update as I started back to teaching and haven't had time to work on the web page. However, I have had a number of submissions, so I hope to get those up this week. These include:

Census index for 1790-1850 of Pillers/Pillars and variations (Thanks to Debbie Johnson)
Scanned photos (Thanks to Jolene Kelly Pillars & Debbie Johnson)
Descendants of John Pillers/Pillars through his son Daniel (Thanks to Danny Ward).

Keep those submissions coming! I'll try not to be so slow in the future.

Subject: weekly update

Hi all,

I've updated a few things on the Pillers/Pillars Family Page (www.gac.edu/~dobler/pillers):

The link for Military now has indexes to compiled service for Revolutionary War and War of 1812. The link for Deaths has a listing from Illinois Death Index 1916-1938. With a little luck, there might be a census index up in a few days. If you have anything to submit, please send it to me:
dobler@gac.edu
Also, send suggestions, comments, or corrections.

Just a few items about the administration of the discussion list:
1. ListBot is doing some upgrades, but for now, it is SLOW. When you post an item, it may not go out to everyone for several hours. They say that their upgrades will speed things up, but I'm not sure when that will happen. So, for now, hang in there and be patient.
2. You can view past messages in the archive. Go to: www.listbot.com Then click on List Member, enter your email address and password. All messages from the list are in the archive. (Actually, all but the first two, which were my test messages.) New members can read the introductions from those who were on the list before you joined.

If you haven't sent the list an introduction yet, do so! We now have 8 members and discussion will be easier if we feel like we know one another.

Thanks to all for subscribing!

From: "Danny R. Ward" <dwdawg@mcmsys.com>
Subject: More Introductions

YO YO YO everybody.....my name is Danny Ward and I too am a Pillers descendant.

My mother was Sarah Nadine Pillers (1922-1960), whose father was Francis (Frank) Marion Pillers (1882-1967), whose father was Thomas Buck Pillers (1840-1922), who father was Albert Pillers (1817-1877), whose father was Daniel Pillers (1788-1863), whose father was John Pillers (dates unknown).

The only information I have regarding John Pillers is that he was of German descent, lived in Washington County, PA, and traveled up and down the Mississippi. At one point in time he was captured by the Indians, escaped to return home, but subsequently disappeared, leaving six children. He was found on the 1790 census of Washington County, PA. We may find a connection between John Pillers and James Francis Pillers, who potentially could have been brothers. Wouldn't that be a kick!!!!!

As for personal information.....I live in Moberly, Missouri with my wife Pat and our four children. I am a controller (bean counter) for a local industrial manufacturing company and have worked in the accounting field for 25+ years. I enjoy "surfin the net", racing, traveling, and of course genealogy. I would invite everyone to stop by and visit our home page at www.mcmsys.com/~dwdawg. I know that Carolyn Dobler and Debbie Johnson already have and I appreciated their comments.

I look forward to helping and participating in the development and maintenance of the Pillers/Pillars Family page. Carolyn, Jolene, Debbie.....wonderful job!!!

Pillers Family List: Message #5

Date: Aug 29 1998 01:00:31 EDT
From: Debbie Johnson <crjdeb@concentric.net>
Subject: Introductions

Hi Everyone. I guess I'll go next. My name is Debbie Johnson. I live in Texas with my husband, two sons, and a dog. I also descend from James Francis Pillers to John B. to Peter W. to Henry C. to Prentiss Velpo to Lois then Me. Prentiss Velpo is my grandfather. It's an odd name and if anyone has ever seen it anywhere else, I'd love to know where. I started keeping notes on all Pillers variations a while back in hopes that we could connect them someday. I'll gladly share and help where I can.

I have volunteered to begin our newsletter. Jolene, I will be contacting you soon for some pointers. I have lots of questions. I am looking forward to working with all of you in our common quest for ancestors.

Carolyn, you're doing a great job getting us Pillers/Pillars cousins together. Keep it up!

Pillers Family List: Message #4

Date: Aug 28 1998 16:15:47 EDT
From: Dcdobler@aol.com
Subject: weekly update

Hi All,

Our membership now totals 6--we're growing every day! Now that we have a few people, it might be nice if we each sent a short introductory message to the group telling our Pillers/Pillars connection. I think you all know who I am, but here goes. I'm Carolyn Pillers Dobler and I descend from James Francis Pillers (James Francis to John to Peter Wylie to James Martin to George Wylie to Robert Edward).

Web page update: There are now two working links on the web page--Cemeteries has a link to Union Cemetery in Sparta Illinois and Deeds & Land has a link to Public Land Sales. Public Land Sales also has links to Illinois Public Land Sales and to Bureau of Land Management, if you want to search for others. Let me know what you think of the web pages. Any suggestions or corrections are more than welcome. Any submissions are welcome too. Just send them to me at: dobler@gac.edu

I plan to add categories "Military," "Marriage," "Birth," and "Death." Any more????

I also plan to add a section called "Branches" which will include links to the lineages of the various Pillers/Pillars lines. Would it be too hokey to have each link on an image of a branch?

I "advertised" the list by submitting the URL to Cyndi's list and to FamilyTreeMaker's Internet Family Finder. I tried this morning to search FTM Internet for "Pillers" or "Pillars", but neither came up with the web page. I haven't tried Cyndi's list, but I think it takes her a while to get links up. Listbot also has free listings for up to 20 sites, like Alta Vista and so on, so I plan to do that too.

And finally, I'd like to thank all of you for signing up for the list and for all your help. This is your list and your web page--so keep the contributions and ideas flowing!!

Hi All,

Our membership now totals 9--we're growing every day! Now that we have a few people, it might be nice if we each sent a short introductory message to the group telling our pillers/pillars connection. I think you all know who I am but here goes. I'm Carolyn Pillers Dodier and I descend from James Francis Pillers (whose fiancee to come to Peter Myllo to James Martin to George Myllo to Robert Bennett).

Web page update. There are now 150 posting links on the web page--Cemeteries has a link to Union Cemetery in Peoria Illinois and Deeds & Land has a link to Public Land Sales. I also plan to add a section called "Memories" which will include links to the lineages of the various Pillers/Pillars lines. Would it be too much to have each link on my page of a branch?

Pillers Family List: Message #3

Date: Aug 24 1998 17:05:39 EDT
From: Pillers Family List <dobler@gac.edu>
Subject: Welcome to the Pillers/Pillars list!

We have four people on the list so far--2 descendants of James Francis Pillers and 2 descendants of John Pillars/Pillers! Now, how can we get evidence that these two guys are brothers? And then the next big question--who are their parents? And other siblings, besides Richard?

I hope to have some more stuff up on the web page this week. If you have anything you'd like to submit, please send it to me. I will acknowledge you as submitter. Also, if you have a source for your info, be sure to include that, too.

I also plan to have links to descendants of James and descendants of John. I will try to respect confidentiality of living people, so I probably won't include current generations.

I will be adding more categories to the web page including military, court, and vital records. Any other ideas?

When we get a few more people on the list, maybe we could each send out a brief introductory message.

Thanks for signing up for the list!
